UNITED STATES

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD

QUESTION.—What is thy only comfort in life and death?

ANSWER.—That I, with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Saviour Jesus Christ, who, with His precious blood, hath fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me, that, without the will of my Heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head; yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation: and therefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me sincerely willing and ready henceforth to live unto Him.

*H*IS New Year Thou givest me,
Lord, I consecrate to thee,
With all its nights and days:
Fill my hand with service blest,
Fill my heart with holy rest,
And fill my life with praise.

Another year for Jesus!
How can I wish for you
A greater joy or blessing,
O fellow-worker true?
Eternity with Jesus
Is long enough for rest:
Thank God that we are spared to work
For Him whom we love best!

For the weariest day
May Christ be thy stay!
For the darkest night
May Christ be thy light!
For the weakest hour
May Christ be thy power!
For each moment's fall
May Christ be thy all!

President General Synod,

REV. CHAS. E. MILLER,
Editor Christian World.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE RELIEF OF MINISTERS AND THEIR WIDOWS OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

The above society is the oldest charitable organization in the Reformed Church, coming down to us from our German forefathers. It has for its purpose the giving of financial help to the aged or disabled minister, or perhaps his widow, if in necessary circumstances.

Its income annually from collections in the churches, interest on invested fund, and from individual gifts, is about $3,500.00. In the present year the Society has extended financial relief to twenty-one ministers and thirty-two widows of ministers, expending $3,275.00, averaging $62.00 to each one.

Annuitants are found in all the Synods of the Church—east and west, German and English.

Appeal is made, therefore, to the whole Church, as all parts are receiving the benefits of the Society.

The Society has a membership of three hundred life and fourteen annual members.

The privilege of membership in the Society extends to all ministers of the Reformed Church residing in any State or Territory of the United States. The terms of membership are, for life members, sixty-five dollars, in one or more payments, and for annual members, five dollars initiation fee and three dollars annual dues.

The benefactions of the Society are given only to those IN NEED, and may be given

1. To disabled ministers, who are members.
2. To the widow of a deceased member.
3. To the widow of any deceased minister of the Reformed Church.

The Daniel Stine Memorial Home is located in Myerstown, Pa., and is a home for aged ministers, their wives, and the widows of ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States. It is the property of the Society for the Relief of Ministers and Their Widows, and is controlled by a board of managers composed of nine members chosen by the Society. The officers are:

REV. J. D. MILLER, President, Duncannon, Pa.

REV. WM. C. SCHAEFFER, PH.D., Secretary, Chambersburg, Pa.

REV. SIMON S. MILLER, Supt. and Treas., Myerstown, Pa.

MARCH.

REV. JAMES I. GOOD, D.D.,
President Board of Foreign Missions.

JOSEPH L. LEMBERGER,
Treasurer Board of Foreign Missions.

THE NEW MISSION IN CHINA.

As instructed by General Synod at its last meeting, the Board of Foreign Missions has resolved to plant a new mission in the Providence of Hunan, in China. For several years there has been a growing feeling that with our increasing membership our Church was not adequately responding to the Saviour's last command, by confining her work to our one mission in Japan. The Board, but for the want of the necessary means, would have taken an advance step before this. But as the General Synod has spoken the word and assured the means, the Board is hastening to make the forward movement.

The Province of Hunan, in Central China, hitherto the most hostile to the incoming of missionaries and foreigners in general, is now the most needy province in the Empire, and presents a field with its tens of millions of souls into which we can enter without interfering with the work of others. A widely-extended tour through the province revealed the fact of a wonderful change in the temper of the inhabitants with reference to Christianity. The exploring party was received with cordiality by many, and they discovered that there were hundreds and thousands who are ready to receive the Gospel.

Into this inviting and unoccupied field our Board proposes to enter. Already Rev. W. E. Hoy has been directed to take up work in this new field, and in the near future a companion in his labors will be designated and sent forward. Thanks to the helpful liberality of the Reformed congregation at Columbiana, Ohio, for the speedy equipment of this China Mission.

REV. C. E. CREITZ.
Financial Secretary, Board of Home Missions.

REV. E. R. ESCHBACH, D.D.
President Board of Home Missions.

HOME MISSIONS.

With the general revival of business, the financial aspect of our home missionary work is brightening, and the Board has ventured to enroll a few new fields.

It is an interesting fact that the missionaries of our Church in this country are preaching the Gospel in five languages: in German, of course, that came first; in English, of course, that is the language of the land; but also in Hungarian, Slavic and Bohemian.

The Board has lately employed a traveling Hungarian missionary, Rev. Stephen Virag, whose work is to visit the scattered communities of his countrymen, who are without pastors, and to meet their spiritual wants, as Rev. Michael Schlatter did a hundred and fifty years ago for the Germans here.

Another forward step is the creation of the office of Financial Secretary, to which the Board called Rev. Charles E. Creitz. It is hoped that through him a greater interest may be awakened and a larger income secured.

The monthly missionary periodical, The Reformed Church Tidings, has undergone a change of size, make-up, home, editor and publisher, which doubtless will make it also more useful than ever. All of its pages are now used for missionary matter.

The many legacies coming to the Board of late years is a significant sign. Many can do large things only in this way, and so they make the Church an heir.

The ninety church-building funds now loaned to the missions, all gathered within about a dozen years, bear witness not only to their great usefulness but also to the growing willingness of our people to give them.

In response to overtures on the subject, the General Synod of our Reformed Church, at its meeting in Dayton, Ohio, June, 1896, instructed the Sunday-school Board to prepare a manuscript copy of a Sunday-school Hymnal and Service Book. The Board appointed for this purpose a special committee consisting of Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, chairman, Lancaster, Pa.; Rev. Reuben Keller, White Pigeon, Mich.; Rev. Stanley L. Krebs, Reading, Pa.; Supt. T. B. Wireback, Heidelberg Schools, Philadelphia, Pa., and Elder D. N. Schaeffer, Reading, Pa. For two years this committee labored and placed in the hands of the Editorial Committee on the Sunday-school Board, a complete manuscript copy, in the winter of 1899.

Since then, the music has been carefully edited under the direction of competent editors, and orders of service were prepared by the Editorial Committee of the Board. The General Synod at its last meeting, Tiffin, Ohio, May, 1899, after a careful examination of the manuscript copy by a committee of musicians and Sunday-school workers, heartily commended the book.

The Hymnal should have a large sale.

REV. A. V. CASSELMAN,
Pastor Grace Reformed Church.

GRACE REFORMED CHURCH.
This congregation supports a Foreign Missionary.

The history of Grace Reformed church, Columbiana, Ohio, is mainly traditional from its organization in the early part of this century, until the year 1867, when a roll-book was begun.

In the year 1814, Joshua Dixon, the founder of the village of Columbiana, Ohio, by article of agreement with a number of then prominent citizens, donated a lot for school, meeting-house and burial purposes. A Union log meeting-house was built; 1822, Union Reformed and Lutheran brick church; 1868 the Reformed people purchased the interest of the Lutherans, and built a larger brick building, known and dedicated as "Grace Reformed Church"; 1895, remodeled into the present commodious structure.

The following pastors have served the congregation, in order named: Rev. J. P. Mannen-smith, Rev. Henry Sonnedecker, Rev. H. Pals-grove, Rev. C. Lienakemper, Rev. Aaron Wan-ner, D.D., Rev. James Rinehart, Rev. Henry Hilbush, Rev. J. M. Kendig, D.D., Rev. H. T. Spangler, D.D., Rev. J. H. Bomberger, D.D., Rev. J. V. Lerch, Rev. J. H. Bomberger, D.D., Rev. A. V. Casselman, the present pastor.

Under the leadership of successive pastors, the congregation grew in grace, in numbers, and especially in liberality of giving to the Lord. The spirit of missionary effort has been of a steady growth. But not until the present pastor, Rev. A. V. Casselman, conceived the idea that the congregation should support a foreign missionary to open the way into China, and with faith entered into the development of a plan to attain to this end, which resulted in the pledging of $800.00 annually for seven years for this purpose, and a call to Rev. Fred Cromer to take up the work, was there any extraordinary manifestation of missionary zeal.

The roll of membership now numbers 408, the Sunday-school between 300 and 400. The congregation has active senior and junior C. E. societies, a W. M. S., and B. of A. and P. Two members of the congregation are now in the foreign field, Rev. S. S. Snyder, C. E. missionary, Miss Lillie M. Rohrbaugh, teacher in the girls school, Sendai, Japan.

Rev. Casselman thrust the sickle into a ripened harvest and gleaned a "widow's mite."

MASSANUTTEN ACADEMY,
Rev. J. Silor Garrison, A. M., President.

MASSANUTTEN ACADEMY.

Massanutten Academy, the youngest literary institution in the Reformed Church, opened its doors to students, for the first time, September 12th, 1899.

It is located in the central part of Shenandoah Valley, in the town of Woodstock, Va., the county-seat of Shenandoah county. It is under the control of Virginia Classis, and is managed by fifteen trustees.

It is a high-grade Academy, and is co-educational, its aim being to give its pupils a full and complete academic education, equipping them for entrance into our best Colleges and Universities, or giving them a thorough preparation for the various departments of business life.

The school has an able faculty, the President of which is the Rev. J. Silor Garrison, A.B.

It is singularly fortunate in its location. Woodstock lies in the heart of the far-famed Shenandoah Valley. Its people are cultured and sociable; the climate is delightful and healthful. As to the beauty of its scenery, it can scarcely be surpassed. On the east rises in full view the graceful form of Massanutten mountain, from which the Academy takes its name, extending north and south for sixty miles, through the central part of the Valley; and on the west the eye delights to linger upon the rugged but grand North mountain, with its numerous craggy peaks and spurs and gaps. The landscape is beautiful and inspiring.

The Academy building was formerly the handsome residence of the late United States Senator H. H. Riddleberger. Since it came into the possession of the Classis, it has been enlarged and improved for school purposes.

JOACHIM NEANDER.

The greatest hymn-writer of the Reformed Church of Germany was Joachim Neander. He was born at Bremen about 1650. While attending the Reformed university there he was converted through the preaching of Rev. Theodore Untereyck, pastor of the St. Martin's Reformed church, of Bremen. On an autumn Sunday he, with two of his companions, went to hear Untereyck. They went to mock but he remained to pray. For while Untereyck was preaching, God's Spirit laid hold of his heart, and during the prayer after the sermon, the tears flowed in streams down his face. At the close of the service, although his companions tried to laugh him out of it, he went to Untereyck's house to have a conversation about his soul's salvation, and by him he was led to the sense of forgiveness of sin.

This sudden conversion seems to have baptized his latent poetic genius with new power. He afterwards visited Frankford on the Main, where he came into contact with the prayer-meetings of Spener, and there he began to write hymns. In 1674 he became rector of the Reformed Latin School at Dusseldorf. Here he met with various difficulties. The prince of that district was a Catholic. The leaders of the Church there were not in entire sympathy with him. Rumors that he was persecuted there, have come down to us. He therefore joyfully accepted a call (1679) to Bremen, his birth-place. There, in the church where he found his Lord, the St. Martin's church, he became the assistant to his spiritual father, Untereyck. There he would preach on Sunday mornings at the five o'clock service. But his health soon failed and he died on Pentecost, May 21, 1680. "His death-bed," says De Hase, his intimate friend, "was a six-days' pulpit, from which he preached much." But though dead, like Abel, he speaketh. He will ever live in his immortal hymns. They were first published in his book, "Hymns of the Covenant" (1679), and soon they were sung everywhere. Although the Reformed Church then sang psalms almost exclusively, yet his hymns gradually won their way into the churches and hymn-books. Had he not been cut off at an early age, he would have equaled Paul Gerhardt in the beauty and number of his hymns. His greatest hymn is "Lobe den Herren." We give a translation of it:

Praise ye the Lord ! He is king over all creation !
Praise ye the Lord ! O, my soul, as the God of salvation !
Join in the song, psaltry and harp roll along,
Praise in your solemn vibration.

Praise ye the Lord ! who in glorious majesty reigning, Bareth thee upward, on wings like the eagle's sustaining—
Thee to uphold, arms of His mercy unfold—
Faithful 'mid all thy complaining.

Praise ye the Lord ! who with honor and blessing hath crowned thee;
Pouring his gifts out of heaven like showers around thee.
Think of it too, what the Almighty can do,
How by His love He hath bound thee.

Praise to the Lord ! and let all that is in me adore Him,
All that hath breath sing, with Abraham's children before Him
He is our light, fountain of glory and might,
Come let us kneel and adore Him.

MANHATTAN PURCHASE.

A DISTINGUISHED REFORMED PIONEER.

Peter Minuit is a truly historic personage, because he had much to do with the beginning of important movements both in Church and State.

Descended from Huguenot refugees, the Reformed Christians of France, he was born in the German city of Tresel, in Rhenish Prussia, 1580. He was an elder in the French Reformed Church in Tresel, but in 1625 entered the service of the Dutch West India Company, organized in Holland, to promote Protestant settlements in the new world.

He was the first governor, or director-general, of New Netherland, as New York was originally called. May 4, 1626, he landed on Manhattan Island, where New York City now stands, with a band of Reformed colonists, but before making settlement he bought the land from five chiefs of the Iroquois Indians. For twenty-four dollars' worth of merchandise the site of the metropolis of our great Republic was purchased, as represented in our picture. In 1628 Governor Minuit helped Domine Jonas Michaelius to organize the first Reformed church in America, and was the first ruling elder of the congregation, which still prospers as the Collegiate Dutch Reformed Church of New York city. After six years of honorable and successful administration, he was unjustly recalled by the Dutch West India Company. After fruitless efforts to regain his power and position, Minuit accepted a commission from the Swedish government to establish another Protestant colony on the west bank of Delaware Bay. March 15, 1638, he landed at Paradise Point. He bought the entire region reaching from Cape Henlopen to Trenton Falls.

OCTOBER.

TERSTEEGEN'S HOUSE AT MUHLHEIM.

GERHARD TERSTEEGEN.

He was the greatest lay hymn-writer of the Reformed Church of Germany. He was born November 25, 1697, at Meurs in Northwestern Germany. At the age of fifteen he became an apprentice at Muhlheim, and while attending Reformed prayer-meetings there, he came under deep conviction of sin, which lasted for five years. During this time on one occasion while walking through a forest he became so sick that he thought he would die and be lost. Finally he found peace, and then wrote his dedication in his own blood (1724), and also wrote a hymn, "My great High Priest, how kind thy love." For nine years he labored at ribbon-making but gave it up in 1728, for in 1725 he had been led by Providence to do evangelistic work in his district of Berg. He also traveled to Holland, everywhere speaking for Christ. In 1727 and also in 1750, God's Spirit was poured out on the region around his home. He held religious services in his house, which was so crowded with people that they would gather on the windows and stand on ladders outside the house so as to hear him. Many were converted through his preaching and also by his books. Many of his books, especially his "Spiritual Flower-garden," found their way to this country and were bought by our forefathers in Pennsylvania. He also practised medicine, but aimed through it to bring souls the the great Physician. Although always sickly, he lived to a good age. He died April 3, 1769, saying, although in great pain, "O God, O Jesus, sweet Jesus." Through his influence the pietistic elements in the Reformed Church along the northern Rhine did not leave it for the Moravian, but remained in the Church; so that to this day, the Reformed are among the most aggressive in Germany. His character appears in his greatest hymn, "Lo, God is here, let us adore!"

ZWINGLI AS A PREACHER.

Ulric Zwingli, the founder of our Reformed Church, was a many-sided character. He excelled as a theologian, a pastor, a patriot, a poet, and a musician. But among them all, one of his greatest characteristics was his unusual eloquence as a preacher. Of his power to sway audiences, several illustrations have come down to us. The first is given in the picture on this page, his preaching at Monza, in Italy. While he was in his first charge at Glarus, many of the Swiss entered the military service of other nations. As chaplain he went with them on two occasions to Italy in their wars against the French. But in the second campaign, in 1515, the French had secretly succeeded in bribing some of the Swiss officers over to their side. Against a treaty bought with such treachery, Zwingli protested in a sermon preached on September 7, 1515, in the public square at Monza. There he exhorted the Swiss to unity and watchfulness against a common foe. But his words were unheeded and the Swiss were soon after disgracefully defeated by the French at the battle of Marignano. In this campaign Zwingli showed his boldness and eloquence in speaking for truth, and he was much honored by the soldiers.

A year or two later he exhibited another illustration of his remarkable pulpit power. His second charge was Einsedlen. To this abbey came every year thousands of persons to have their sins forgiven by the Virgin Mary, because there was there a shrine of the Black Virgin. But Zwingli began preaching the evangelical Gospel there in 1516, and he boldly preached to the pilgrims that not the Virgin Mary, but Jesus Christ forgave sins. This was a new Gospel to them. Many of them turned away disappointed, and the number of pilgrims lessened. Still Zwingli kept on preaching that "Christ saves and he saves every where." Many of the pilgrims, deeply impressed by what he said, carried the new Gospel of Protestantism to their homes and Zwingli's fame spread all through Switzerland and into Germany. Hedio, one of the reformers of Germany, thus speaks of a sermon he heard from Zwingli at that time: "It was beautiful, fundamental, dignified, comprehensive, searching, truly evangelical, reminding one in force of language and spirit of the old Fathers of the Church." Zwingli's reputation as a preacher soon made this mountain abbey too small a place for him, so Providence promoted him. He was called to the leading church of the leading city in the canton, the cathedral at Zurich. There his eloquent preaching packed the large building with attentive hearers as he preached to them on the Gospel of Matthew. Through his wisdom and eloquence the city and

WINNEBAGO INDIAN MISSION CHAPEL.

WINNEBAGO INDIAN CONVERTS.

canton of Zurich left the Catholic Church, and in a few years became entirely Reformed.

Perhaps the most remarkable illustration of his power as a preacher occurred at Berne, at the famous conference there in 1528. Zwingli was preaching, when a priest entered the church to perform mass. But Zwingli's eloquence attracted his attention. He listened until before the large audience he threw off his Catholic robes and declared, "If the mass rests on no better foundation, I shall not read mass either today or at any other time." His dramatic conversion produced a great sensation and aided in gaining the victory for the Reformed at that conference. Zwingli's reputation as a preacher was in every way worthy of his fame as a reformer.

WINNEBAGO INDIAN MISSION, BLACK RIVER FALLS, WIS.

The readers know that our Church is doing mission work in Japan, but that she is doing work among the Indians many do not know. During the winter the Indians would come down into the vicinity of the mission house to sell fancy work and beg. The sight of these poor creatures raised the question, "Is it right for us to send missionaries to foreign countries while we neglect those heathen at our very doors?"

During the winter of 1878 Sheb. Classis resolved to start a mission among the Indians. The field selected was the Winnebago tribe, located in Jackson county, Wis., and Rev. J. Hauser was the first missionary who labored among those people till 1885. His successor was Rev. J. Stucki, who is still engaged in the work. The work is very trying for various reasons, a few of which we give: 1. The language is hard to acquire. 2. The nomadic character of the people who are constantly on the move, makes it difficult to follow them. 3. The bad influence and example of the irreligious white people with whom they come in contact, has its effect. 4. The natural feeling of distrust of the white man. And 5. The meagre support of the work that the Church has given.

These people were eager for a school for their children, and thus far most of the work has been of an educational character. The pictures above represent the mission chapel and a small group of Indians. This work is very deserving. The Indians are very poor, and Rev. Stucki needs the support and prayers of the Church in this noble and self-denying work. Contributions for this cause should be sent to the treasurer, Rev. L. W. Zenk, Manitowoc, Wis.

Your Will.

Every good business man has his will made. Some good people put off this matter. They dread to think of it. They somehow feel that that belongs to the last days, and that when a man or woman makes a will they do it because they think their end is near. Not at all. They do not expect to die just yet. But they know that human beings may die at any time, and feeling that they are responsible as good stewards to God for the right distribution of the means He has allowed them to accumulate. They make their wills so that no wrong may be done. But will not the law fix that? And will a Christian let a worldly, non-Christian State divide what God has blessed? By God's blessing your work has prospered, and shall not He have His share for His work? Do you want God to forget you when you die? The State gives God no share! But you must not forget Him. You want to remember His cause in your will. Forms of bequests to all our institutions are given below. Select your own objects; but do make your will now and let something for the Lord's cause.

Forms for Bequests.

In making bequests to benevolent objects it is important that a proper form be used; otherwise the intent of the testator may be defeated. Hence we suggest the following:

NECROLOGY.

REV. HENRY H. TRAUTMAN was born December 16, 1819, in Alsace, France, and died at his home in Cleveland, Ohio, October 29, 1898, aged nearly 79 years. In his thirteenth year he came to America with his parents, and after a short residence at Pittsburgh, Pa., the family located at Cleveland, Ohio. Rev. Trautman was a blacksmith by trade. He was converted under the pastorate of Rev. Raufholz, in the First Church, Cleveland. He was licensed to preach in 1862, and ordained the following year. His first charge was at Vermillion, Ohio. Afterward he labored at Kelley's Island and other places. In 1873 he became pastor of the newly-organized Fourth Reformed Church, Cleveland. In 1881 he retired from the active ministry, but subsequently served two years as supply for the Fifth Church, Cleveland. For a number of years he has been disabled by bodily infirmities. He was married to Maria Elizabeth Bruckner, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who died two years ago. He lies buried in the Monroe Street Cemetery, Cleveland.

REV. MORITZ NOLL was born August 24, 1845, at Bergfreiheit, Waldeck, Germany, and died at his home at New Knoxville, Ohio, November 2, 1898, aged 53 years, 2 months and 11 days. He early learned the tailoring trade, and finally went to Switzerland. Here he entered St. Chrishona School at Basle, and completing the course, came to America early in 1873. In November following he was examined, licensed and ordained at Philadelphia, and at once became pastor of a German Church at Harrisburg, Pa. June 3, 1877, he became pastor at Bellaire, Ohio. On August 3, 1879, he took up the work at Ringersville, Ohio, and served that field thirteen years, resigning to accept an earnest call to New Knoxville. He was twice married—May 2, 1876, to Mary Fischer, who died June 11, 1878; and on January 1, 1880, he was married to Emma Zahner, who survives him. He was a great sufferer for some months before his death. He is buried at New Knoxville.

REV. M. G. I. STERN, D.D., was born in Schweinfurt, Bavaria, Germany, May 9, 1828, and died December 17, 1898, aged 70 years, 7 months and 8 days. He was educated in Wurzburg and Frankfurt-on-the-Main, and came to this country when nineteen years of age. He studied several years at Mercersburg, and in 1852 was licensed and ordained. His first service was as a missionary at Rochester, N. Y., where he spent a year, during which time he was married to Sarah J. Stern, of Easton, Pa., who died December 15, 1876. He organized a congregation and built a church at Delaware, Ohio, serving as pastor from 1854 to 1856. Early in 1857 he became pastor of the First Reformed Church at Indianapolis, Ind. In 1863 he organized St. John's Mission, in the same city, and was its pastor for thirty years, when he retired from active service, suffering from defective eyesight. He labored, however, as opportunity offered. He was long in the active service of the Church, and one of the foremost ministers of our Reformed denomination. For twenty-six years he was an active member of the Board of Home Missions of the two western German Synods, and for the last ten years President of that Board. He was the founder of the Church-Building Board of the German Synods, and also one of the founders of the Deaconess Home in Indianapolis. He is buried at Indianapolis.

REV. THOMAS LONG, one of the oldest ministers of the Reformed Church, died at Salem, N. C., December 25, 1898, aged 80 years, 1 month and 7 days. We are unable to say much of his early life. He began to preach in North Carolina during the Civil War, when there was great need of ministers. His first and only charge was that of Upper Davidson, serving the field faithfully for twenty-five years, and in that time erecting two churches. He was twice married, both wives passing on before him. He sleeps in the burial-ground alongside the Hebron Church, which he erected, and in which he so long and faithfully proclaimed the Gospel of salvation.

REV. JOHN M. KESSLER was born in Reading, Pa., December 19, 1856, of Swiss parentage, and died at Allentown, Pa., January 19, 1899, aged 43 years and 1 month. He received his early education in the public schools of his native town, graduating from the High School in 1889, after which he entered Mercersburg College, graduating from there in 1873. The same year he removed with his parents to Allentown, Pa., entered a law office, and was soon admitted to practice law in Lehigh county. He followed this profession for ten years, but feeling that he was called to the ministry, entered the Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., and spent the year 1885-86 there. In 1886 he was licensed and ordained and became pastor of the Reformed Church in Greenville, Ohio. The following year he accepted a call to Mulberry, Ind., where he was quite successful in his work. In the Spring of 1898 he accepted a call to St. John's Church at Bangor, Pa., but in August of the same year was compelled to relinquish the work there because of impaired health. He sought medical aid, but to no avail. He was married to Emma Ruhl, of Allentown, Pa., May 10, 1883, and she survives him. His last days were spent at Allentown, and he is buried in the Union Cemetery of that place.

REV. JOHN RETTIG, a well and favorably known minister in our Reformed Zion, was born in Baden, Germany, in 1830, and died suddenly on February 15, 1899, at his residence in Fort Wayne, Ind., aged 69 years. His death was due to his taking carbolic acid by mistake. Brother Rettig came to America with his parents in 1843, and located in eastern Ohio. Early in life he decided to study for the ministry. In 1849 he was licensed and ordained by St. John's Classis, and became pastor of the charge at New Philadelphia, Ohio. He served altogether forty years in pastoral work, serving successively at Crestline and Galion, Ohio; Wheatland, Iowa; Auburn and Indianapolis, Ind. October 3, 1883, he assumed his last great work—that of superintendent of the newly-founded orphan home at Fort Wayne, Ind. The remarkable growth of this institution of our Church is due to his executive ability and strong personality. He gave the best of his life for the cause of the orphans. He was married on May 25, 1850, to Anna M. Schmeidel, who with eight children survived him. Mrs. Rettig had been in poor health for some years, and on April 22d following joined her husband in the great beyond, aged 68 years, 2 months and 28 days. Rev. Rettig was the father of Revs. L. C. and John H. Rettig. He is buried in Fort Wayne.

REV. L. P. NERGER was born in Mechlinburg-Schwerin, Germany, where his aged parents still reside, and died in New York City, February 19, 1899, aged 38 years and 6 months. He received his education at Berlin, Rostock and Leipzig. He came to New York City, and from 1886 to 1890 was Assistant Secretary of the German Y. M. C. A. From 1890 to 1895 he served as General Secretary of the German Y. M. C. A. in Philadelphia, Pa., resigning to enter Union Theological Seminary in New York City, to complete his studies for the ministry. In the Spring of 1896 he was licensed by the German Philadelphia Classis, and later became pastor of Zion's congregation at Baltimore, Md., and was ordained on August 9, 1896. He served this congregation until his death.

REV. F. J. EMIL MUEHE was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on January 11, 1865, and died at Lancaster, Pa., on February 19, 1899, aged nearly thirty-five years. In early life he was compelled to launch out for himself. When about eighteen years of age he went to Baltimore, Md., and later became a member of the Sunday-school of the Third Reformed Church, and on January 9, 1885, became a member of that church. He felt called to the ministry, and with great sacrifices took a course in Mercersburg College and a theological course in the Eastern Seminary, at Lancaster, Pa., graduating in 1895. On June 1st of the same year he became pastor at McKeepsport, Pa., where he served but a year, being compelled, because of ill health, to seek a change of climate. He spent several years in North Carolina, Denver, Col., and Cincinnati, Ohio, and finally went to Lancaster, without finding any permanent relief. His death soon took him. He lies in the cemetery at Baltimore, Md., his former home. A wife and four children survive him.

REV. JESSE CECIL died on March 5, 1899. He was received into the Classis of North Carolina, from the Methodist Church, in 1862, and shortly after was ordained and installed pastor of the West Rowan charge. He also labored some time at Concord, and afterward removed to Thomasville, where he continued to reside until his death. In the meantime he frequently preached at Moffit's Grove. A few years ago Calvary Church was organized at that place. He also supplied the Lower Davidson charge for several years. Though deprived of the advantages of a seminary training, by diligent application he gathered an abundant fund of theological learning. He took great interest in the public schools, being for some time County Superintendent. He is buried in Pine Woods Cemetery, Thomasville.

REV. WILLIAM GOODRICH was born January 6, 1826, at New Hagerstown, Ohio, and died at Clearspring, Md., May 6, 1899, aged 73 years and 4 months. In his early life he taught public school, and then entered Marshall College, with the ministry in view. He graduated from the college in 1851, and a few years later from the seminary. After being licensed and ordained, he engaged in missionary work in and about Columbia, Pa. From here he went to New Providence, Pa., where he remained two years, when he accepted a call to the Bloomsburg charge, and served this large field for nearly twelve years. On November 25, 1865, he with his family removed to Clearspring, Md., where he took up pastoral work. He greatly revived the cause in this field, built a church at Clearspring, and one at St. Paul's. Here he served heroically and faithfully until his death—over thirty-three years. He was a meek and pious man, much beloved by his people. He frequently represented Maryland Classis upon the floor of the District and General Synods. He was married on September 14, 1852, to Caroline Elizabeth Straub, who with seven children survives him.

REV. D. K. FULCASON was born in Armstrong county, Pennsylvania, June 14, 1844, and died at Warren, Ohio, June 5, 1899, aged 55 years, 11 months and 21 days. He was an orphan at the age of four years, and lived with relatives. Early he began to educate himself, and an aunt was very helpful to him. He taught school for nine years, being only fourteen years old when teaching his first term. Two years and nine months he was a teacher in the Orphan Home at Butler, Pa. He received his college education at Mt. Pleasant College, and his theological training from Rev. Dr. Jeremiah Good, reciting to him privately. At a meeting of the Ohio Synod at Shelbyville, Ill., in the Spring of 1873, he was ordained and at once began missionary work in Shelby county, Illinois. Here he experienced many difficulties and deep trials, as the field was then in its pioneer days. On one of his trips he was thrown from his horse and compelled, because of the injury sustained, to give up pastoral work. He also suffered several strokes of paralysis. Feeling a special call, however, he arose from a sick bed and went to Lone Tree, Iowa, where he was active in the ministry for six years. Afterward he labored at Orangeville, Ill., North Hampton, Ohio, and the Leavittsburg charge, Ohio, where he resigned in December, 1898. In January, 1899, he was attacked with la grippe, from which time until his death he was a great sufferer. He lies buried in beautiful Oakwood Cemetery, at Warren, Ohio.

REV. DEXTER B. ANDERSON was born in Pierpont, N. Y., September 21, 1827, and died June 17, 1899, in Marshalltown, Iowa, aged 71 years, 8 months and 24 days. In his youth he attended the public schools, and afterward was a student at Canton and Potsdam in New York State. He taught school for several years in his native State and also after he came West, and then entered college at Beloit, Wis. He was ordained to the ministry in 1859, at Franklin, Minn., and for a number of years labored in the Baptist Church. Of late years he has been a member of the Reformed Church, doing some ministerial service, but because of advancing age and failing strength, retired. He died while on a visit to the Soldiers' Home at Marshalltown, but the funeral service and burial took place from his home in Lisbon, Iowa.

REV. WILLIAM M. LANDIS died July 19, 1899, at Rebersburg, Pa., aged 63 years. He entered the ministry in 1864, after such preparation as he was able to make. His first charge was at Harmony, Pa., which had been reduced to a mission. He labored here with much zeal for more than five years. He was the pastor, organist, and superintendent of the Sunday-school. When he left the charge it had again become self-supporting. In 1871 he was sent as a missionary to Lykens, Pa. After a year of hard work, he organized a congregation of sixty members and erected a church building and parsonage. In 1872 he became pastor of the Rebersburg charge—five congregations—where he labored eleven years. During his pastorate here he erected three new churches, a parsonage, and repaired two churches, and when his pastorate closed there was no debt on any of the church property. In 1883 he took charge of the Beaver Springs pastorate of five congregations. The charge was scattered and matters not in good condition. Here also he did a good work, building three churches, a parsonage, and repaired two churches. He labored in this field fifteen years, resigning in the latter part of 1898. He removed to Allentown, and later to Altoona. He was a pastor for thirty-three years. He is buried at Rebersburg, and leaves a wife, two sons, and one daughter.

Are charming gospel singers. They sing from the heart to the heart. They play their accompaniments and know what constitutes a good organ.

The following is what they have to say about the Weaver Organ.

"As we travel about from place to place in Evangelistic work, we have been obliged to use almost every known make of reed organ, but we have never used an instrument that has afforded us so much pleasure and satisfaction as the Weaver Organ. It is light in action and responds instantly to the touch, and for quality of tone is unsurpassed."

Our Way...

Is to sell all our product without the aid of the popular and almost universal and indispensable traveling salesman.

OUR WAY is not popular in the trade, and we have no imitators. To imitate would be disastrous to many a factory—takes too fine an organ. Our organs are our salesmen. They stand on their merits and are sold on their merits all over the world. There is something in this fact of great importance to the buyer and user of an organ. Please investigate.

A Remedy According to Nature....

THE Compound Oxygen TREATMENT

of Drs. Starkey & Palen is such a remedy. It is a treatment by inhalation of Compound Oxygen, rich in ozone, the vivifying principle of atmospheric air. It is what we seek in mountain and seaside resorts; but it is not there in such proportions as in the Compound Oxygen. Besides, Compound Oxygen may be taken at home, without the inconvenience of going away, and without interruption to business. We can furnish convincing and irrefutable testimonials from patients, who have been cured of chronic or acute diseases, and who gladly acknowledge their indebtedness to this remedy for the health they are now enjoying. Book of 200 pages sent free. Write or call.
